TROUBLE OVER SATURDAY PAY.

Contractor Willing to Pay for Only Nine Hours' Time—Men Say They Have Put in Full Time—Dagos May Be Brought Here.

The twenty men employed by John Ferguson, the Patterson man who has the contract for the building for the filtering plant at Moshonghoke, had dropped their tools and went home at 7:30 o'clock, this morning, saying they were not to be paid for Saturday work.

The men were to work two weeks pay to-morrow night, and the trouble was caused by the announcement, made this morning, that since they were not to be paid for Saturday work, they would be paid for only a nine hours' day, and that the same rule would prevail to-morrow, if they stopped at 5 o'clock.

The men, who are working in the city, are not happy, and they are not happy.

Pleasant and Well-Attended Gathering at the Homestead in Greenville.

About twenty members of the Schultz family held a very pleasant reunion Thursday, in a grove at the old homestead, near Greenville. Toney were listened to with interest.

Among the older members of the family present were Mrs. Margaret Coleman, of Athens, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Seeley, of Greenville, and "Aunt Sarah," as Mrs. James Schultz, of Westtown, is familiarly known.
